WELCOME TO CAMP NIM

At Camp NIM, every camper is on a mission! Our goal is to inspire future leaders by combining teamwork, curiosity, and adventure in a safe, supportive, and exciting environment.

Located in a one-of-a-kind camp setting, Camp NIM offers experiences you won't find anywhere else.

Mission ready. Adventure awaits.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Fun for everyone!

Camp is structured as 4 unique weeks with individual themes aligned by age group. Camp begins with drop off at 8:15am and closes daily at 4:00pm with breaks for lunch, snack and one offsite field trip a week.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Camp NIM provides a safe environment for all campers. The following behaviors that result in removal from camp include but are not limited to:

- Fighting
- Bullying
- Foul language
- Inflicting harm
- Possession of weapons
- Harassment

EMERGENCY COMMUNICATION

In the event of an emergency and you need to get in touch with someone immediately, please call the National Infantry Museum front desk:

706.685.5800

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships are available! If you would like to apply for a scholarship your camper(s) must write a message to our sponsors.

Please visit the Camp NIM webpage for more information to download the form. Completed scholarship applications return to rsmith@nationalinfantryfoundation.org

Scholarships are given out on a first-come, first-served basis

WHAT TO BRING

- Lunch
- Water bottle
- Sunscreen (provide waiver)
- Other sun protection (hats, sunglasses, etc)
- Change of clothes*

WATER WARS

*Each camp will have a dedicated day for Water Wars. Please bring a change of clothes for your camper to change into after water play. Specific day will be provided on the first day of camp.

FOOD

Campers must bring their own lunch.

Snacks will be provided daily. Snacks provided from home are approved but only during approved snack breaks. Please list any allergies in the registration forms so that we may have substitutions available.

Due to potential allergies, be aware that certain snacks may not be permitted if it poses an allergic threat to another camper.

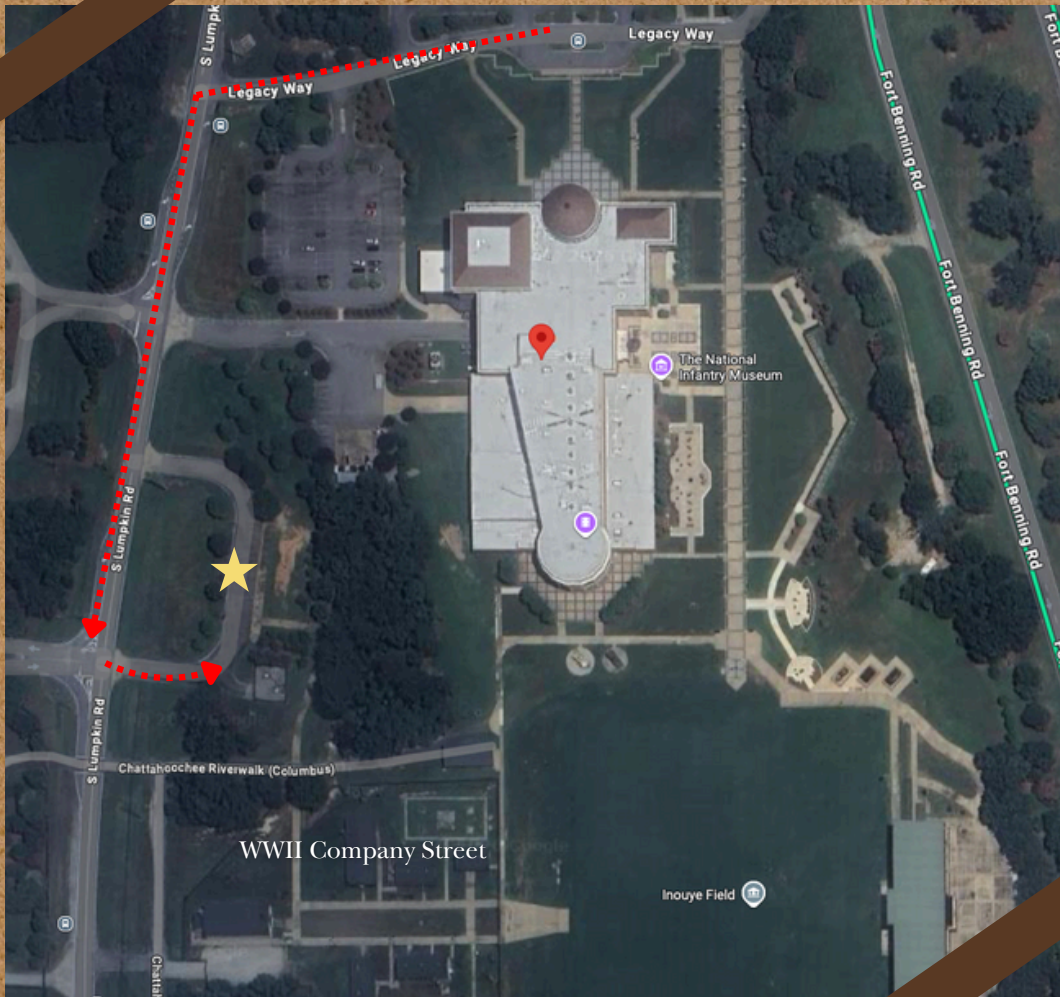

Thank you for keeping our campers safe.

END OF WEEK CEREMONY

On the last day of camp each week, families are invited to attend a small ceremony performed by the campers. Campers spend the week preparing a skit with their platoons to highlight their favorite camp experiences. Platoon leaders give out superlatives to each camper and recognize the awesome things witnessed during the week. Please plan to join us at 4pm and support your camper!

PICK-UP and DROP-OFF CAMP NIM

ARRIVAL/ DROP-OFF/ PICK-UP

Arrival- Each morning, campers will be dropped off at the circle drive near WWII Company Street. Staff will be outside waiting to greet campers as they arrive.

Drop-off- Adults must 'sign' their camper in each morning with time of drop-off, camper's name, and signature. Be sure to provide lunch at this time and any other required documentation i.e sunscreen waiver.

Pick-up- Adults picking up must be listed in campers' registration as permitted to pick up. Adult must show ID when picking up. Pick up location will be the circle drive near WWII Company Street.

ELECTRONICS

We understand the importance of communication with your kiddos. If you would prefer your camper have their phones at camp, they may bring them. However, phones must be stored in a safe place, not in use, during camp.

In case of emergency or early withdrawal please contact the Museum front desk.
